Retention of Data

One of the key principles of the relevant data protection legislation, including the GDPR, is that the personal data we store and process shall be adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary for the purpose it was originally collected. Our standard policy is for information or data to be kept for only as long as necessary. It is then disposed of in a managed and secure way. However, as pensions are a long term saving vehicle it may be necessary to retain your personal data for the remainder of your life and any dependants' lives in order to pay you the benefits you are entitled to along with any dependant's benefits payable.

Transferring data overseas

Our core systems, data, and administration services are all carried out and stored within the UK. However, TCS an International multinational information technology service, based in India provide maintenance support. Therefore, on rare occasions it may be necessary to transfer your data overseas to TCS.

Transferring personal data outside the European Economic Area to a third country that does not have adequate data protection is prohibited unless the country has been approved by the European Commission as providing an adequate level of data protection or adequate safeguards have been put in place to ensure the security of the data. As India is currently not on the European Commission's list of countries providing adequate data protection, the Railways Pension Trustee Company Limited and Railpen Limited have taken steps to put in place appropriate and suitable safeguards. Railpen and TCS have entered into a data protection contract using standard clauses adopted by the EU Commission (so-called model clauses). These contain enforceable data subject rights and effective legal remedies for data subjects against TCS. A copy of these are available upon request at the address below.

If at any time we propose to use your personal data for any other reason than outlined above we will provide you with further details as to why and for what reason we intend to do so.

Completing forms on behalf of a child

If you are completing forms, on behalf of a child we may also hold and use your personal information, which will be dealt with on the same basis as set out above.

Your Rights

You will have a number of rights under data protection legislation. These include the right to:

- see the information we hold about you;
- request personal data to be amended if it is inaccurate or incomplete;
- request the deletion or removal of personal data where there is no compelling reason for its continued use;
- block or restrict the processing of your personal data in certain circumstances; and
- object to the processing of your personal data in certain circumstances

There is also a right under the GDPR to receive your personal data (in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format) and to transfer your data to another service provider or data controller. This right applies where your data is being processed on the basis of your consent or in line with a contract to which you are party. Please note that for the majority of members this is not applicable as we rely on our legitimate business interest to collect and process your data rather than individual consent or contracts.
